LECTIONARY 943: OLD TESTAMENT READINGS

Old Testament 1: I Kings 8:55-61

A reading from the first Book of Kings.

King Solomon stood and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, saying in a loud voice:

“Blessed be the LORD who has given rest to his people Israel, just as he promised.

Not a single word has gone unfulfilled of the entire generous promise he made through his servant Moses.

May the LORD, our God, be with us as he was with our fathers and may he not forsake us nor cast us off.

May he draw our hearts to himself, that we may follow him in everything and keep the commands, statutes, and ordinances which he enjoined on our fathers.

May this prayer I have offered to the LORD, our God, be present to him day and night,

that he may uphold the cause of his servant and of his people Israel as each day requires, that all the peoples of the earth may know the LORD is God and there is no other.

You must be wholly devoted to the LORD, our God, observing his statutes and keeping his commandments, as on this day.”

The word of the Lord.

Old Testament 2: Sirach 50:22-24

A reading from the Book of Sirach.

And now, bless the God of all,

who has done wondrous things on earth;

Who fosters people’s growth from their mother’s womb,
and fashions them according to his will!

May he grant you joy of heart and may peace abide among you;

May his goodness toward us endure in Israel to deliver us in our days.

The word of the Lord.

Old Testament 3: Isaiah 63:7-9

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.
The favors of the LORD I will recall,
the glorious deeds of the LORD,
Because of all he has done for us;
for he is good to the house of Israel,
He has favored us according to his mercy
and his great kindness.
The LORD said: They are indeed my people,
children who are not disloyal;
So he became their savior
in their every affliction.
It was not a messenger or an angel,
but he himself who saved them.
Because of his love and pity
he himself redeemed them, Lifting them and carrying them
all the days of old.
The word of the Lord.

Old Testament 4: Zephaniah 3:14-15

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Zephaniah.
Shout for joy, O daughter Zion!
Sing joyfully, O Israel!
Be glad and exult with all your heart,
O daughter Jerusalem!
The LORD has removed the judgment against you
and turned away your enemies;
The King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst,
you have no further misfortune to fear.
The word of the Lord.

LECTIONARY 944: NEW TESTAMENT READINGS

New Testament 1: I Corinthians 1:3-9

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians.

Brothers and sisters:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I give thanks to my God always on your account for the grace of God bestowed on you in Christ Jesus, that in him you were enriched in every way,

with all discourse and all knowledge,

as the testimony to Christ was confirmed among you,

so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift

as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

He will keep you firm to the end, irreproachable on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

God is faithful, and by him you were called to fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

The word of the Lord.

New Testament 2: Ephesians 1:3-14

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him.

In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will,

for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved.

In him we have redemption by his Blood,

the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us.

In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth.

In him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will,

so that we might exist for the praise of his glory,

we who first hoped in Christ.

In him you also, who have heard the word of truth,

the Gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as his possession, to the praise of his glory.

The word of the Lord.

New Testament 3: Colossians 3:12-17

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians.

Brothers and sisters:

Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved,
heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another,
if one has a grievance against another;
as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do.

And over all these put on love,
that is, the bond of perfection.

And let the peace of Christ control your hearts,
the peace into which you were also called in one Body.

And be thankful.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly,
as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.

And whatever you do, in word or in deed,
do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,
giving thanks to God the Father through him.

The word of the Lord.

Notes about Responsorial Psalms and other Scripture Readings

On the following pages, various options for the Responsorial Psalm are given from the Lectionary. These responsorial psalms may be chanted by the musicians, or recited by a specially-trained lector. However, there are many other responsorial psalms in our hymnal that may be sung instead of these. Please consider the responsorial psalms in the hymnal in addition to the follow responsorial psalms.

Also, other Scripture readings, not found among these recommendations, may be used as well, as long as they are from a Catholic translation of the Bible, and follow the usual format for readings:

1) Old Testament, 2) New Testament (but not Gospels), and 3) Gospel reading, as at any Mass.

Please discuss any alternate Scripture readings and responsorial psalms with the priest beforehand.

The Scripture Readings and Responsorial Psalms found in this publication are taken from the section of the Lectionary that has Masses in Thanksgiving to God. According to the ritual book published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the Scriptures contained in this publication are recommended for Quinceañera celebrations in our country. They may also be read in Spanish.

LECTIONARY 947: GOSPEL READINGS

Gospel 1: Matthew 7:7-11

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find;
knock and the door will be opened to you.

For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds;
and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

Which one of you would hand his son a stone
when he asks for a loaf of bread, or a snake when he asks for a fish?

If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good things to those who ask him.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 2: Matthew 11:25-30

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

At that time Jesus answered:

“I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones.

Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.

All things have been handed over to me by my Father.

No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son
and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart;
and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 3: Mark 5:18-20

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

As Jesus was getting into the boat,

the man who had been possessed pleaded to remain with him.

But he would not permit him but told him instead,

“Go home to your family and announce to them all that the Lord in his pity has done for you.”

Then the man went off and began to proclaim in the Decapolis what Jesus had done for him; and all were amazed.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 4: Luke 1:39-55

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.
When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said,
"Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.
And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy.
Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled."

And Mary said: "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord;
my spirit rejoices in God my savior for he has looked upon his lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed:
the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.
He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm, and has scattered the proud in their conceit.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children for ever."
The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 5: Luke 10:17-24

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

The seventy-two returned rejoicing and said to Jesus,
"Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name."
Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky.
Behold, I have given you the power 'to tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you.
Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

At that very moment he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said,
"I give you praise, Father, Lord of heaven and earth,
for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike.
Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.
All things have been handed over to me by my Father.
No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son
and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him."

Turning to the disciples in private he said,
"Blessed are the eyes that see what you see.
For I say to you, many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, but did not see it,
and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it."
The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 6: Luke 17:11-19

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.
As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee.
As he was entering a village, ten persons with leprosy met him.
They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!"
And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests."
As they were going they were cleansed.
And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice;
and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan.
Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine?
Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?"
Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."
The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 7: John 15:9-17

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.
Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love.
If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.
"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete.
This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.
No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends.
You are my friends if you do what I command you.
I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing.
I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father.
It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you.
This I command you: love one another."
The Gospel of the Lord.

Gospel 8: John 16:20-22

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.
Jesus said to his disciples:
"Amen, amen, I say to you, you will weep and mourn, while the world rejoices;
you will grieve, but your grief will become joy.
When a woman is in labor, she is in anguish because her hour has arrived;
but when she has given birth to a child, she no longer remembers the pain because of her joy that a child has been born into the world.
So you also are now in anguish.
But I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice,
and no one will take your joy away from you."
The Gospel of the Lord.
